Key figures for the Chablis wine region

Average production *

- 260,738 hectares
  - of which 259,362 hectares of white wines
  - 100% Chardonnay varietal
  - 5,376 hectares of the total volume of wine produced in the Bourgogne region
- 5,376 hectares
  - 991 ha Petit Chablis
  - 102 ha Chablis Grand Cru
  - 3,510 ha Chablis
  - 773 ha Chablis Premier Cru
- 40 Climats classified as 1er Cru
- 7 Climats classified as Grand Cru

Companies

- Cooperative cellars: 1/4 of production
- Wine estates: 464
- Wine-producing merchants: 49

Export market shares

- Proportion of Chablis sales to foreign markets (in volume)
  - Outside European Union: 35% (85% of total French AOC wine exports)
  - European Union (without France): 65%

The market (année 2016)

- Bottles sold: 35.7 million
- Estimated revenue: €251 million

Spread of Chablis wine sales (in volume)

- Traditional outlets: 66%
- France-retail: 14%
- Export: 20%
  - France: 10%
  - European Union: 9.5%
  - Leading export markets (in volume):
    - France: 29%
    - United States: 10%
    - Japan: 8%
    - United Kingdom: 7%