Bourgogne, 1 February 2018

For more than a quarter-century, the Bourgogne Wine Board (BIVB) has been committed to wine tourism, and in particular through two key tools: The “De Vignes en Caves” welcome charter, created in 1991; and the “En Route vers les Bourgognes” guide.

The “A trip through the vines” section of the Bourgogne Wines website completes the service, enabling you to plan the perfect trip!

The “En Route vers les Bourgognes” guide was designed to facilitate planning your trip with six tourist trails through the vines. The 2018 edition lists even more producers and wine-related celebrations that ever before, proving that wine tourism is anything but a passing fad, and is a confirmed trend in the Bourgogne winegrowing region.

The 2018 guide in figures

- The details of 363 estates, producers, and cooperative cellars that have signed up to the “De Vignes en Caves*” welcome charter, listing languages spoken, opening hours, price ranges, accommodation and food options, and details of organic producers.
- 100 wine-related events throughout the year are listed in a calendar at the end of the guide.
- A map of the Bourgogne winegrowing region listing key sites to visit across the region, with smaller maps of each wine route on the back. Produced in partnership with the Bourgogne-Franche-Comté tourist board.
- 85,000 copies are available from around 900 outlets in the Bourgogne-Franche-Comté and Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes regions, including tourist offices, regional and departmental tourist organizations, hotels, campsites, gîtes, freeway tourism information points, and train stations and airports in Lyon.

And as always...

A prestigious label

The national “Vignobles & Découvertes” label was created in 2009, to bring together everyone involved in wine tourism in a single territory. It is awarded by Atout France for a three-year period to a wine-related destination offering multiple and complementary tourism products, such as accommodation, food, cellar visits and tastings, museums, and special events. Visitors can explore the region safe in the knowledge they have easy access to certified activities along the various Bourgogne wine trails.

Currently, there are seven zones that have been awarded the label in the Bourgogne winegrowing region, jointly covering 600 offers, including 158 cellars:

- ▶ Beaune, from Corton to Montrachet
- ▶ Dijon Côte de Nuits
- ▶ Chablis
- ▶ The Auxerrois
- ▶ The Mâconnais
- ▶ The Côte Chalonnaise
- ▶ The Châtillonnais

Please note: The Tonnerrois region has an application underway and the label should be awarded in the spring of 2018
